May 19 to May 20, 2012, in Philadelphia
Marcella Kochanska Sembrich Chorus No. 321
Will Host the 62nd Convention of District 7
Polish Singers Alliance of America

Polish music and songs will fill the air when the first-place winning Marcella Kochanska Sembrich Chorus No. 321, PSAA, host the 62nd convention of District 7 Polish Singers Alliance of America from May 19 to May 20, 2012, in Philadelphia.

In addition to business sessions at the Associated Polish Home, there will be a juried competition among the choruses in the male, female and mixed chorus categories on Saturday afternoon, May 19, at 2:00 pm at St. John Cantius Church, and a gala concert featuring each participating chorus individually as well as the combined choruses, will also take place at Saint John Cantius Church immediately following the 11:30 am special Singers Mass on Sunday, May 20. Soloists and the Junior Chorus No. 22 of the Adam Mickiewicz Polish Language School will join the choruses of District 7 PSAA in the gala concert. The singers will party at a gala dinner dance, with music provided by DJ Joe Narodowski on Saturday evening, May 19, from 8:00 pm to midnight at the Associated Polish Home.

Organized in 1988 as the Paderewski Female Chorus, the chorus changed its name to spread the renown of Polish-born soprano, Marcella Kochanska-Sembrich, who was the reigning coloratura on the Metropolitan opera stage from 1898-1909. Madame Sembrich taught at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia and the Juilliard School of Music, NY. She was considered the greatest coloratura of her day.

Under the baton of both Harriet Spinka of Philadelphia and Janusz Sporek of the Music Education Center of Brooklyn, NY, the Chorus will be defending its First Place in the female chorus category as well as the highest score over all competing choruses. Chorus rehearsals are held every Monday evening from 7:30-9:30 pm at the Associated Polish Home, 9150 Academy Road, in northeast Philadelphia. New members are always welcome.

A souvenir journal that will include brief histories of the member choruses of the District, and all convention activities will be published, and the Chorus invites all to place their greetings, good wishes and advertisements in the journal.

All are invited to attend the various convention activities: the competition and gala concert at St. John Cantius and the dinner dance at the Associated Polish Home. For additional information, kindly contact Dolores Czaplicka at 215-633-0560.
