400th Anniversary Celebration at Museum

Throughout the day, on Wednesday October 1, 2008, there were several celebrations to mark the 400th Anniversary of the First Poles in America. They began with the 12 Noon Proclamation Ceremony and Reception, four groups visited throughout the day and concluded with the 5 P.M. Settlers Celebration. Hundreds participated at festivities at the Polish American Cultural Center Museum Exhibit Hall, 308 Walnut Street in historic Philadelphia, PA. It was another opportunity to mark a milestone in Polish American history.
