Thanks to the Pulaski Day Parade Participants

The Polish American Congress, Eastern Pennsylvania District, compliments the representatives of the parade divisions for their time and efforts in preparing this year’s Pulaski Day Parade. Although this event requires a tremendous investment of time and money to be successful, it provides a beautiful display of Polish Heritage to the community at large.

Thanks to the parade divisions which included:

- U.S. Veterans
- Polish Army Veterans
- Frankford High School Color Guard
- Roxborough High School Color Guard
- Polish American Congress, Eastern Pennsylvania District
- Jagiellonian Law Society
- Polish American Cultural Center Museum in Philadelphia
- Historic St. Stanislaus Church, South Philadelphia
- Second Street Polish Society
- Associated Polish Home, Northeast Philadelphia
- Polish Intercollegiate Club, P.K.M. Polish Folk Dancers
- Janowick Polish Folk Dancers
- Polish American Heritage Associations Tri-State Poland
- St. Joseph Group of Manayunk and Roxborough Areas
- Polish Roman Catholic Union of America
- St. Valentine Parish, Frankford Section
- Kosciuszko Foundation, Philadelphia Chapter
- Polish National Alliance and Polish American Heritage Association of Delaware County
- St. Adalbert Parish, Port Richmond Section
- Polish Arts Club of Trenton, New Jersey
- Polonia of Camden County
- Polish National Alliance Group 3106, Cumberland County
- Sacred Heart Parish, Swedesburg, PA
- St. John Cantius Parish, Bridesburg/Frankford Section
- Polish Beneficial Association
- St. Laurentius Parish, Fishtown Section
- Polish Police Association of Philadelphia
- Polish Eagles Sports Club
- National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa, Doylestown, PA

Each of these parishes and organizations makes this annual parade possible in center city Philadelphia, in cooperation with the Polish American Congress Pulaski Day Parade Committee. Compliments to their representatives, pastors, and presidents for their outstanding participation in the 2012 Pulaski Day Parade.